

Essam El Nagar

Date of birth : 23/7/1965

Qualification : bachelor of military sciences (military academy)
-bachelor of engineering (Cairo university)

Current position : the chairman of general organization of export and import control from 20/10/2021

Office telephone: 22669650 / 22666847

Academic qualifications and experiences

- Chief of Staff of war engineer.
- Bachelor's degree in military sciences in 1987
- Bachelor's degree of engineering Cairo university in 1995
- Master of military sciences
- Senior war college fellow –Naser Academy for military sciences
- Egyptian defense attaché to the Tunisian republic

Representation on different boards of directors

- Member of the board of directors at consumer production agency
- Member of the board of directors at national accreditation council
- Member of the board of directors at national quality institute
- Member of the board of directors at nuclear and radiological control organization
- Member of the board of directors at regional training center for foreign trade
- Member of the board of directors at the Egyptian general authority for specifications and quality
- Member of the board of directors at national institute of measurement and calibration
- Member of the supreme council of ports headed by the transport minister.

- Member of the national council for quality assurance of industry
- Member of the development projects council at ministry of trade and industry
- Member of the board of directors of the institute of metallurgical research

Tasks and Responsibilities previously assigned to him at GOEIC.

- Undersecretary General (Head of the central administration of the chairman of board affairs office).
- Member of the board of directors at GOEIC.
- Head of the technical secretariat of the appeal committee.
- Head of Human Resource committee at GOEIC according to the chairman's decision numbered 582/2019.
- Head of the personnel welfare committee.
- Member of the follow up committee for food products formed by the decision of prime minister numbered 20/2018.
- Member of the leadership committee at GOEIC
- GOEIC Representative at the federation of industries at GOEIC
- -GOEIC Representative at anti-corruption committee at (Ministry of Trade and Industry).
- GOEIC Commissioner at the general assembly of ISEG GALAL EGYPT Company.
- Head of conformity certificates issuance unit (iso17065)
- Head of visual inspection certificates issuance unit ISO 17020
- Head of registration unit at SAUDI SABER system.
- GOEIC Representative in the joint committee for coordination to unify the rules and regulatory procedures for import and export
- Responsible for supervising over the central administration of human resources.
- GOEIC representative at the board of directors of contact point body for intellectual property protection affairs.
- GOEIC Representative at the executive committee to follow up the project of the pre- registration system of shipments at the ministry of finance.

Skills and personality features :

- The high ability and efficiency at management and the ability of communication with the subordinates.
- The high ability and efficiency in project management and team work.
- The experience and the high ability at planning and accurate follow up for implementation and appraising performance.
- Good experience at contracting field and finding the most appropriate means for managing needs while spending rationalization.
- The ability to work in a team and cooperate with all the employees to achieve the best performance.
- The skill and experience at leadership art and communicate with concerned bodies and the subordinates and to transfer the experience and creating distinguished new cadres.
- Continuous desire for education, performance development and personal rehabilitation.

The Most Important achievements at GOEIC

- Preparation and participation in the issuance of the administrative and financial regulation to upgrade the financial level of the employees.
- Preparing an insurance medical project for GOEIC ' S employees
Restructuring the central administration of the chairman's affairs office resulting into achieving its tasks.
- Presenting GOEIC's achievements in an advanced way. -
- GOEIC's participation in various exhibitions at trade and industry sector to improve GOEIC's image externally and providing its services directly to the customers.
- Participation in the development plan for food and industrial labs of GOEIC and improving its level.
- Preparing a complete guide-book about food and industrial labs at GOEIC with the most important devices and the accredited and unaccredited tests and the most important goods being inspecting and its geographical distribution throughout Egypt.
- Supervising over all foreign delegations' visits to GOEIC-
- Developing the website of GOEIC and improving and auditing the data and services available through it.
- Work on an integrated marketing plan for food and industry labs of GOEIC

- Supervising over the issuance of economic bulletins issued for GOEIC
- Raising the level of administration of public relations to serve citizens and develop its performance, especially at corona pandemic period.
- Rehabilitation of the food and chemical labs for rework at Aswan branch in compliance with the directions of the president to complete the examination labs at Egyptian ports with advanced devices to facilitate the release procedures for shipments.
- Supervising over GOEIC's page which has a great effect on exporters and importers social and to publish all GOEIC's achievements and to note all new laws ,decisions, commercial agreements, answering all questions and inquiries electronically (with the country precautionary measures in light of the corona pandemic).
- Caring for GOEIC employees and honor them ex. (ideal mother- ideal father) and forming a unit for women's equal opportunities at public relations department.
- Follow –up and implementation the organization strategy embodied in reducing the time of release, and not transporting samples outside the ports and upgrading the service system provided to exporters and importers through applying the highest international quality standards which contribute to facilitate the commercial movement between Egypt and foreign markets.
- Supervising over the conformant products unit and registration at Saudi SABER system and approval of FRESH factory for cookers.
- Establishing an Electronic documents chamber at 6th of October branch -
- Supervising over the Golden Jubilee of GOEIC.-
- Working to speed up the completion of the new lab building at Dekhela in compliance with the directions of president of the Republic.