1. Scope

This procedure describes the procedure for the process of receiving, substantiating, investigating the appeal and deciding what actions shall be taken in response, tracking and recording the appeal maintenance of records of appeals. The appeals should be discussed in PTU-staff meetings and the actions taken should be documented. The process for handling appeals shall be publicly available.

2. Purpose

Appeals are objections, errors, or non-conformities involving work quality, or failures to provide service or other requests of the customer including timeliness relates to PT activities. Appeals can provide valuable feedback on the effectiveness of the PTU and can be used to improve the management system.

3. References

ISO/IEC 17043:2023 General requirements for the competence of providers of proficiency testing schemes and for the development and operation of proficiency testing schemes.

4. Process for handling appeals

4.1 Receiving of appeals

- Appeals may be received in various means in writing, electronically through e-mail or fax.
- Upon receipt of a customer appeal as defined above, the customer/representative will fill the (appeal form F02- P7.7- PTU); with the appropriate information including date, customer name, service description and brief description of the problem or reason of appeal. The PTU shall confirm whether the appeal relates to PT activities and, if so, shall resolve the appeal further, on the form it should be documented whether and how (i.e. by telephone, Email, or fax) the contact was solved or if an appeal has been completed.
- Regardless of the means of receipt, the complaint is recorded on the corrective action report documented in form (F01-P8.7-PTU Nonconforming work & CA request). The QA manager contacts the customer by either phone or email to confirm receipt of complaint.
